We start off on Thursday night, with a trip to the Theatre District for “A Bronx Tale”, a streetwise musical based written by Chaz Palminteri. Based on his real life story, it takes you to the stoops of the Bronx in the 1960s—where a young man is caught between the father he loves and the mob boss he’d love to be. Featuring a doo-wop score, A Bronx Tale is a story about respect, loyalty, love and above all else: family. It is co-directed by Robert De Niro and Jerry Zaks.

Our Travel Doll Event on Friday night, NYC - A Look Back In Time, will take us back to the New York of the 1890s, a time of extraordinary fashion and the emergence of such institutions as the Metropolitan Museum, the Metropolitan Opera and the American Museum of National History.

Saturday, Wendy Visits the Sights of New York City, with a special trip to Times Square. She may even tackle the subway!
